

How could God incarnate be

    Wrapped in frail humanity

        Ever living Deity

        Virgin born today

How could God incarnate be

    Sinless, bearing sin for me

        Ever living Deity

        Dying on the tree

How could God incarnate be

    Dead and buried, three days He

        Ever living Deity

        Rising from the grave

How could God incarnate be

    Interceding now for me

        Ever living Deity

        Sitting on His throne

How could God incarnate be

    Still a man in glory He

        Ever living Deity

        God-man forevermore

Behold your God incarnate He

    Jesus, Lord of history

    Coming King of prophecy
