Your God-given Connections

Peeling the Worldview Onion

● Entry Conversations: [ Work – Health – Travel – Hobbies – Weather – World Events – Personal History – Local Interests – Education – Family – Other ]

Look for “entry points” into deeper worldview layers:

- Issues involving personal pain, pleasure or significance
- Religious symbols, statements of beliefs, values, and value-driven choices
- Observed behavior that reflect values & beliefs

● Investigation Questions:

Probe politely to discover core beliefs:

- Build without being argumentative
- Use and develop good, acceptable questions

So, what’s your story? Where you’re from... how you ended up here...

● Conversion Discussions:

What would it take to make you really happy & fulfilled?

Then what?

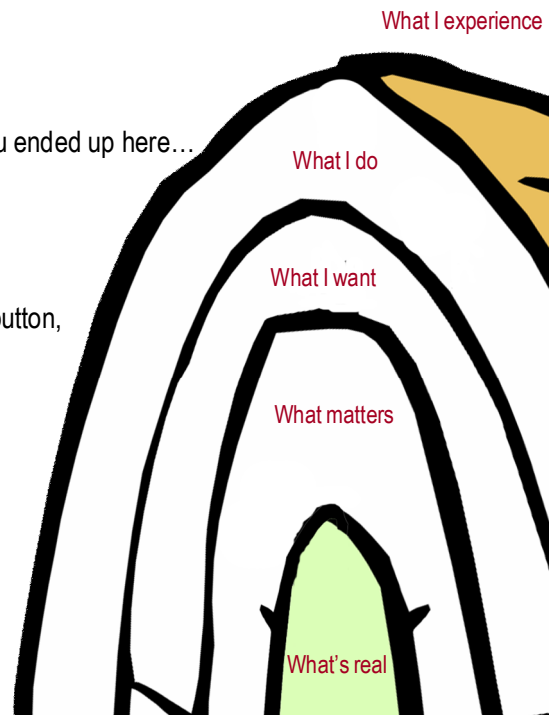

If you could change anything in the world by pushing a button, what would you change?

Why do you think the world is so messed up?

What are your greatest hopes for your children?

Do you think this life is it, or is it just the beginning?

The conversion of core beliefs generally occurs during the presentation of the gospel, as the weaknesses in an unbeliever’s worldview are exposed to the transforming truths of God’s Word.

- 3 Offense . rebuke without relationship always offends

Helping Believers to Retain the Gospel

Luke 8:15

But the seed on good soil stands for those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it*, and by persevering produce a crop.

*Greek katechousin = hold firmly (as one who has been catechized)
