Hooked

Looks good to me! Famous last words of many a man.

Temptation is real and sometimes deadly. Just consider the last fish dangling on your line.

He has a desire. You carefully disguised the hook and made the bait look real and satisfying.

But you had no intention of providing a meal for the fish. You planned on making a meal out of the fish!

That's the way temptation works. We have a hunger and the lure is right there in front of us. What looked good at the beginning had a deadly hook inside.

The bible says a lot about temptation. Check it out

Hooked by our own foolish thinking %There is a way that seems right to a man, but its destination is death+ paraphrase

Hooked by our desire for more stuff
%What does it matter if a man gets the whole world and loses his own soul? paraphrase

Hooked by lust
%Every man is tempted when he's led astray by his own sinful desires and baitedō desire gives birth to sin, and sin when full grown produces death+ paraphrase

Hooked!
%Caught by the line of (our) own sins+
%All have sinnedō . none are righteous+
%The wages of sin is death+

Good News! Though we've all been caught by our sins, we can be released. Jesus Christ, God's Son, took the deadly consequences of sin on Himself when he died on the cross in our place. If we will admit we cannot save ourselves, and come to Jesus by faith, He will forgive our sins and set us free from eternal death.

Jesus said %anyone who sins is a slaveō .
Butō if I set you free, you will be truly free+
John 8:32-36

%The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord+ Romans 6:23

We must turn from our sins and place our trust in Jesus Christ for forgiveness. Turn to Him today and you'll finally be free of the guilt and power of sin.
