

Pick Your Alibi

bad light	too far	game running
snowing	flinched	foggy
no gun rest	too close	cross wind
out of breath	hurried shot	bent sight
hair trigger	hard trigger	new trigger
uphill shot	bad angle	deflected
downhill shot	loose scope	fogged scope
buck fever	bad position	wrong zero
wet fingers	dry fingers	numb fingers

Nobody's perfect!

Nobody's perfect!

Missed the shot! I often joke with my hunting buddies that my key accessory is a good alibi for when I miss! We've all blown the shot a few times. It's hard to admit it; but it's true.

Missing the shot is one thing... missing heaven is something else altogether. No excuses are good enough to get us into heaven and God isn't buying any of them.

Want to know why?

Because God has already made the way for us. He knows we're sinners, and so do we! That's why Jesus died. He died for our sins and paid the price God's justice demanded.

If you and I will just admit we've sinned, and turn to trust in Christ alone to save us, He'll give us the gift of forgiveness and eternal life. It's so simple and so true.

When the shooting match of life is over, there are no second chances. You'd best take careful aim with your life, because you only get one shot!
